climen Falls to Give Away Weight and Win in the Handicap—Easy Vic-tories for The Lady Rohesia, Paulsker and Sir Brillar-Other Races. The second part of the $15,000 Produce Stakes, for two-year-old fillies, six furlongs, was practically a gift to H. B. Duryea, whose Hamburg fillies, Princees Rupert and Rose of Dawn, ran first and second, respectively, in the rich event at Brighton Beach yester day afternoon. Mr. Duryea declared to win with Princess Rupert, who was taken to the front by Shaw without delay, and made the ee, Hildebrand running second with Rose of Dawn under a tight pull. The rest of the field looked very ordinary, not one of them being able to make the Duryea fillies stretch

Princess Rupert won in a gallop by half length, with Rose of Dawn the same disa length, with Rose of Dawn the same dis-tance before W. C. Daly's Beimont bred filty. Raiment, with the Chelsea Stable's Finders, a daughter of Hastings, half a length behind. The Duryea entry was a prohibitive choice at 2 to 9, while Raiment was quoted at 9 to 10 to show. The race was run in 1:15 over a slow track, although the time in the first race at the same distance

John E. Madden started his two-year-old selt Councilman in the handicap for all ages. a mile and a furlong. The youngster, o was an odds-on favorite, was asked to give twenty-one pounds by the scale to Sonoma Belle, twenty-nine to Cincinnatus and ty-three to Leader, and the task proved tee much for him. He went to the front at the outset, attended by Cincinnatus, who was played down to 4 to 1, but at the end of a mile the Madden colt stopped, and Sonoma Belle, 4 to 1, ran over Cincinnatus, winning in a drive by a length and a half in 1:54 2-5. Cincinnatus beat Councilman by three lengths, and the latter staggered home a head before

Pierre Lorillard's filly The Lady Rohesia, 7 to 5 favorite, made a show of her company in the opening event, at six furlongs, and won galloping by eight lengths. Cascine, 8 to 1, upder the whip all through the stretch, took place money from Bob Murphy, 8 to 1, by a length and a half. The latter dropped from the clouds and best Glad Smile, a 50 to 1 shot, by a neck.
Mr. Story's Paulaker, a hot favorite, who was hammered down from 7 to 5 to 4 to 5, took the steeplechase handicap in what was practically a walk, by thirty lengths, in 4:40. He made all his own pace. Mr. Lorillard's Numeral, second choice, stopped after taking the last jump, and East Kelston, 12 to 1, best him by thirty lengths.

Eagle, a 6 to 5 favorite in the third race, at a mile and a sixteenth, was knocked about so much in a crowding match on the far turn that he dropped out of it quickly. Little Em, 5 to 1, then came on and won easily by three parts of a length, in 1:47 2-5, Jane Holly 10 to 1, running second, the same distance before Garnish, 7 to 1, with Proceeds, 8 to 1, s head back, gaining with every stride

Sir Brillar, 8 to 5 favorite, who won the last race, for maiden two-year-olds, at five and a half furlongs, with consummate ease. He left his field like a flash and romped home, with eight lengths to spare, in 1:08. Santa Catalina, 9 to 2, was second, three lengths before Ed Alvey's Saulsberry, a 20 to 1 shot, who was a head before Peter Wimmer's Red Fox. 8. S. Brown's Ascot Belle, heavily played at 5 to 2, was never in the hunt. Drone who was second for half a mile, blew up. Four favorites and two second choices were rictorious. The threatening weather kept the attendance down to about 8,000. PIRST RACE.

BIG COUP ON WATERSIDE. Madden Lets Drake In, and Thousands Are

Takes Out of the Ring. LEXINGTON, Ky., Sept. 14.—In a letter to friend here Senator P. H. McCarren of brooklyn tells how John E. Madden made a killing with his colt Waterside at Sheepshead Bay several days ago and at the same time let John A. Drake in on the good thing as a balm for his wounded feelings in selling him the colt Britisher for $25,000. According to Senator McCarren, Madden had the good thing bottled up, and when the price was first quoted by the bookmakers it was as good as 20 to 1. The money was sent into the ring by the commissioners of Senator McCarren, and when the bets were paid over $90,000 was taken from the books, $75,000 of which went to Madden. killing with his colt Waterside at Sheepshead from the books, $1.5,000 of which went to Madden money had been placed Madden hunted up Drake and told him of the soft spot, and the owner of Ort Wells sent his commissioners through the ring and was enabled to win close to $50,000. The race in question was run on Sept. 3, when Waterside defeated Lady Amelia, and Senator McCarren said that itwas the greatest out that has been pulled off on the Eastern tracks this season.

TO-DAY'S CARD FOR BRIGHTON. Mercury Handleap for Two-Year-Olds and

Upward the Feature. The Mercury Handicap for two-year-olds and upward at six furlongs is the chief event at Brighton Beach to-day. Lady Amelia and Collector Jessup have each received 127 pounds, with 126 for Hurst Park. John E. Madden's two-year-old Waterside, who recently beat Lady Amelia by half a dozen lengths is in with 102 pounds. Africander also has top weight in the overnight handicap at a mile and a quarter. He will be played to win, as Carbuncle and Spring are the best

In the fifth race, for two-year-olds at six furlongs, Lochinvar, Vidalia, Ike S. and Mistiss seem to be the best. Ostrich may find much support in the second event at a mile and a sixteenth with Cincinnatus, Dimple and Lord Badge also in favor. Counterpoise, Counterpoise, Major Pelham, Van Ness and Gay Boy are worth considering in the third at six fur-longs. In the last event, for two-year-olds at five and a half furlongs, Heart's Desire, Zeala and Blucher all figure well. The en-tries follow.

Planning Another Race for Brenton's Reef

Cup.

If Wilson Marshall, owner of the schooner yacht Atlantic, will agree to waive the formality of thirty days notice, there will be another race for the Brenton's Reef cup this year. The Atlantic won that trophy in a race that ended on Aug. 22, and according to the terms of the race for the cup thirty days must terms of the race for the cup thirty days must elapse before a challenge can be issued, and then fifteen days must be allowed to get the defending yacht ready. To wait those forty-five days would make the contest come late in the season, and it is thought Mr. Marshall, whose boat is now in racing shape, will agree to sail another race for the cup at once. George Lauder, Jr., who owns the Endymion, is anxious to try again. The Endymion started in the Brenton's Reef and Cape May cup races, but was beaten. W. Gould Brokaw, who owns the Sybarita, is also anxious to try conclusions with the Atlantic. Under certain conditions the Sybarita is a very fast boat, and a race with the Atlantic, which is without doubt the best of the big boats, would be very interesting.

Polo at Cedarhurst.

CEDARHURST, L. I., Sept. 14 .- The semi-final match for the New York junior polo cups, presented by William A. Hazard, was played presented by William A. Hazard, was played here to-day. Team A. consisting of Daniel Chauncey, Jr., Seth B. French and Marshall C. Lefferts, Jr., with a total team handicap of six goals, met Team D, the personnel of which was Curtis G. Rand, Erving H. Rand and C. Dixon Moss. The latter team had a handicap of four goals, thus receiving two goals allowance from their opponents. The final score was Team A, 11 goals; Team D, 5 goals. REMARKABLY LIGHT BETTING ON PRODUCE STAKES.

Gates's Betting Agent Clears Up Nearly $20,000 on Little Em-Selling Race War Still Raging-Bookmaker Calls Manager McGraw of the New Yorks.

The betting on the Produce Stakes yes-The betting on the Produce Stakes yes-terday was remarkably light. A careful tour of the ring just before the horses went to the post disclosed the fact that some of the sheets contained less than a dozen bets, while others controlled by the largest opera-tors recorded all the way from twenty-five to fifty. A majority of these wagers were on Raiment and Floralia to show. The crowd felt convinced that the Duryea filles would run first and second, and nobody seemed inclined to accept the prohibitive odds of 2 to 9 against them. Several layers quoted 7 to 10 a place against Rose of Dawn with in one case 1 to 10 against the stable, with the idea of keeping the sure thing speculators

Drake and Gates were not at the track, and other big plungers also were absent. For half an hour the layers sat on their stools holding up the slates, while the crowd stood around in the ring "doping" the next race. Bill Cowan, Riley Grannan, Joe Yeager and several other big bookmakers were on the ground, not caring to quote prices on any of the events.

While there was a general case of idleness among the regular members of the Metro-politan Turf Association, things were very busy with Frank Tyler, the "Humming Bird," on the back line. Tyler had an army of small bettors around him and took in many bets on Floralia to show, quoting 7 to 5, while his rivals laid 6 to 5 and even money. Tyler had more wagers recorded on the result of the Produce Stakes than any other book-maker in the ring, though, of course, the bets were comparatively small. It is an accepted fact that the "Humming Bird" can handle more wagers on a race than the aver-age, and because of his eccentric manner he always attracts a crowd. He is credited with making $75,000 in the "field" last year. and is well ahead of the game in the present campaign.

If Mr. Durves had started Tanys in the Produce Stakes instead of scratching the Star Meddler filly it is believed his entry would have cleaned up the entire stakes, as Tanya can beat Princess Rupert and Rose of Dawn without trouble. But as the track was not fast it is presumed that Tanya was withdrawn on this account.

As to the question of supremacy between Princess Rupert and Rose of Dawn there was a wide difference of opinion after the race. To many it seemed as if Rose of Dawn could have gone to the front at any stage, as she was full of running, and it required all of Hildebrand's strength to keep her in check so that Princess Rupert could win according to the declaration of the stable.

The race was worth about $5,000 to the winner, with $1,500 to the second. Raiment, by finishing third, won $750 for "Father Bill" Daly, who now thinks he can see a silver lining to the clouds. He has not won a race since the last week in July, but says his time s coming.

Charles Head Smith has been acting most of the season as betting commissioner for John W. Gates. In the latter's absence Smith took all the 6 to 1 he could find in the ring against Little Em in the third race and got down about $3,500. Whether this money was wagered for Gates nobody could tell, but after the race Smith collected close to $20,-000 in winnings.

A former police captain who has a fondness for horses was making his way out of the ring after putting down a wager on Councilman, when a tout approached him and in a hoarse whisper said: "Cap, don't let Sonoma Belle get away

"Cap, don't let Sonoma Belle get away from you! She's a pipe."
"Go away from me," growled the captain.
"I don't want any tips."

After Sonoma Belle had landed the money, the captain went back to the ring as meek as a lamb. He met the tout near the pie counter and nodded pleasantly. "Cap," said the wise one, "it's Ascot Belle on the bit. Go to it for the limit." "All right," replied the ex-bluecoat, who hurried up to a book and bet $100 at 3 to 1. After the race the tout saw the captain first and took it on the run. The selling race war cropped out again in the third race. Halter Tommy Griffin. who is making things lively just now for owners who enter their horses at cheap Owner Lakeland bidding an extra $5 and keeping the Goldcrest filly. As Griffin ran second with Jane Holly he received half the amount of the run up. or $500, but as he had hid up E. E. Smather's Dick Bernard on Tues-day, on agent of Smathers squared accounts claiming Jane Holly out of the race. M. . Haymar and J. W. Colt also put in claims for the Patchogue Stable's Eagle. They drew lots and Colt got the Bathampton gelding-a bargain, it was believed.

H. T. Oxr ard, the "Sugar King," who has just returned from Europe, went to the track o see his filly Bella Signora, by Henry of Navarre-Bella Donna, run in the Produc Stakes. He backed her to show for a fair sized wager, but she was never prominent. Mr. Oxnard's colors also were carried in the last race by Santa Catalina, a filly by Suspender-Dainty, who came second, her owner backing her straight and place.

Johnny McGraw, manager of the New York Nationals, accompanied by John T. Brush, Roger Bresnahan and Fred Knowles, came to the track early and made some good bets. While he was in the ring Bookmaker George Boles, who is a fan of the thirty-third degree,

"If you play a series for the world's championship with the New York Americans I'll bet you $1,000 even that you will be beaten!" McGraw declined to make such a wager, and Boles guyed him good naturedly. Other bookmakers, notably George Wheelock, Bill Cowan and Joe Yeager, are willing to wager any amount on the New York Americans if they meet the Nationals.

William Murray leaves to-day for West Baden for a short rest before assuming the duties of starter at the Worth meeting. Chicago.

At the finish of the Gravesend meeting

W. B. Jennings will ship his horses, including Shot Gun and Dainty, direct to the Coast. Ada Nay has been tried over the jumps and has been found wanting. As a result, J. E. Widener has returned the mare to J. B. Haggin, and she will be sent immediately to the latter's Elmendorf Stud in Kentucky. Previous winners of the Produce Stakes holding the record for the race, 1:12 2-5 with

There was a widely circulated tip on Wild Thistle before the first race. The filly ran in the name of L. O. Appleby and was heavily backed at threes. But the form players could not get away from The Lady Rohesia, who was one of the best played favorites of the day.

All of the plungers who were at the track put their checks down on Paulaker in the steeplechase. Several layers refused to accept wagers on the Aloha gelding at any price. Jim Slick, who fell at the first jump, ran over a greater part of the course, but circled the obstacles in each instance.

Joe Yeager's colors were carried by Conceit in the first race. With Hildebrand up the crowd watched the betting closely and when the odds went up to 10 to 1 the filly was generally ignored. Proceeds, Incubator and Dapple Gold were all played across the board in the third event. Proceeds would have been third in another jump, thus saving a big bet made on him by Bob Tucker. In the last race Bill Dalton, who bets for Tucker, placed $1,500 on Ascot Belle. After he had gone to the paddock Tucker sent him back to the books with another wager.

Sir Brillar won the last race like a high class colt. The National Stable tried to make a killing with him at Sheepshead Bay, but made the mistake of giving the mount to a stable boy, and the colt ran third. Yesterday Redfern bad the leg up, and the stable connections placed $10,000 at prices ranging from 2 to 1 to 2 as 5. LAWN TENNIS.

COLUMBIA'S FOOTBALL SQUAD. It Increases in Size, and Much Work Is Done Despite Rain and Mud.

Despite rain and a muddy field, Columbia's football practice yesterday was marked by the largest squad that thus far has appeared. Metzenthin, half back, whose bril-liant work won the game with Pennsylvania last year, put in an appearance looking in the best of condition. Jimmy Wallace, who was a member of the squad two years ago; F. J. Echeverria, a substitute tackle last season, and D. D. Muir were three other newcomers. Muir showed up well as a punter sending some long drives with the assistance of the wind, all around sixty yards. C. L. Frambach, one of the backfield men on the 'varsity last fall, and H. B. Enos, a on the 'varsity last fall, and H. B. Enos, a substitute lineman, were on the field in citizen's clothes, and are expected to come out to play this afternoon.

A great deal of work was done yesterday. Tom Thorp and Capt. Stangland practised kicking off. Moriey gave considerable time to improving the punting work of Reynolds. Smith and Muir. From the showing of these three men it looks as if Columbia would at last have some men on the team to whom the kicking in the games can be intrusted without the loss of many yards in the exchange of punts, as has been the case heretofore. Stephenson, Taibert, Echeverria and Wallace were drilled in starting with the ball. They are rapidly overcoming their slowness. Stephenson is showing up unexpectedly well, and if he continues his good work should have little difficulty in making the eleven.

work should have little difficulty in making the eleven.

Neither scrimmage nor regular line-up work was attempted. With Finnegan to pass the ball back, the men who were being drilled in starting were put on a line, and Donovan, Tintner and Cooper all were tried out at quarter back.

Eddie Thorp, a younger brother of Tom Thorp, was on the field watching the practice. Both he and Amazega, who come from De la Saile Institute, will be out for practice today. Young Thorp is built on the lines of his older brother, and is expected, with practice, to develop into a good player.

Hughey McGovern Wins His First Long

fight of his career at Baltimore last Tuesday night. He met Kid Beebe of Philadelphia in a fifteen round bout at the Eureka A. C. The contest went the limit and McGovern was the winner on points. The mill was a rapid one, but neither man was punished to any one, but neither man was punished to any extent. Beebe was much the weaker at the finish. McGovern forced the fighting from the tap of the gong. He was after Beebe all the time, and for five rounds the Philadelphian was kept busy protecting himself. From this round to the tenth Beebe more from this found to the tenth needed more than evened things up, landing some heavy blows on the body. The fourteenth and final rounds were fought viciously. McGovern made a supreme effort to land a knockout. Beebe backed away and saved himself by lowering his head.

well against the Philadelphias yesterday afternoon, and the home team won a close contest. Reisling was rather wild, but he also was hard to hit. There were five double plays. Brooklyn's fielding was loose, Strang's noticeably so, but the Brooklyns hit better than the tail-enders. Each side scored in the sixth inning. For Philadelphia, Corridon and Gleason singled, and Corridon then came home on an error. Gleason's fumble, Lumley's sacrifice and Sheckard's hit scored Dillon. Batch scored in the ninth on his own single and steal and Jordan's hit. The score:

BOSTON, Sept. 14.—The New York Americans captured one game out of the double header with the champions this afternoon. the second resulting in a tie. Chesbro was not batted hard, his delivery being touched for but six hits, and he received superb sup-port, except for a couple of misplays by Wiliams, neither one of which did any damage The game was played in a hard rain. In the second contest, which lasted only five innings, being called on account of darkness, each team managed to score one run. Powell was touched for four hits, and received per-fect support. Gibson, who twirled for the champions, was in good form, and Anderson was the only man to find him, poking out a pretty single.

The New Yorks scored two runs in the fast inning of the first game. Dougherty made shit. Keeler fanned, but Criger dropped the ball and in throwing to first sent the sphere to the bleachers, and Dougherty circled the bases. Elberfeld was out, Dineen to Lachance, and Anderson popped to Parent. Williams singled, scoring Keeler.

In the third the last run for the visitors was made. Keeler singled. Elberfeld sacrificed him to second and was himself out for running out of the base line to avoid being touched by Lachance. Anderson was llams flied out to Stahl, scoring Keeler. Bos-ton's one lone score was made in the last inning. Collins tripled to left, and on a passed ball he scored.

In the second game Boston scored first. Selbach flied to Conroy and Parent to Elber-feld. Stahl picked out a nice one and laced it for a home run. New York's run was made in the third. Conroy reached first on an error by Parent and went to second on McGuire's sacrifice. Conroy stole third and scored on Powell's fly to Stahl. The teams
